

October

A Data Driven Approach to Increase Student Success: There's No Silver Bullet...But, There Is A Silver Process Webinar

Sponsored by CETL: A step-by-step approach that can be used to increase persistence, course completion, and graduation rates of underrepresented, low-income, and non-traditional college students.
October 21, 1:00 - 3:00

PC 1200

GU Policies and Procedures

Michelle Wiley: Review of the academic policies and procedures of which advisors need to be aware.

October 22, 3:00 - 4:00

ANGEL Gradebook

Tex Brieger
October 23, 1:00 - 2:00

Successful Accreditation: General Things to Consider at Gannon about National Program Accreditation

Tim Coppock, Ken McCurdy and Rebecca Willow
October 26, 1:00 - 2:00

Success with Parent Education: Dialogue with New Students and their Parents at the Collegiate Level Webinar

Sponsored by the Advising Center: Discuss the current practices and effective techniques used to teach new college parents and students about their changing roles.
October 27, 3:00 - 4:30

Intrusive Academic Advising: An Effective Strategy to Increase Student Success Webinar

Examine the concept of "intrusive academic advising," which has been found to have a positive impact on student success. Intrusive advising means that colleges and universities—through instructional faculty, academic advisors, counselors and others—take the initiative to reach out to students to offer advice, support and assistance, rather than waiting for students to seek help.

October 28, 1:00 - 3:00

PC 1200

Service-Learning & Social Justice in the STEM Disciplines

Gretchen Fairley: Methods, best practices, topics and practical project ideas.
October 29, 10:00 - 11:00

Service-Learning & Social Justice in the STEM Disciplines

Gretchen Fairley: Methods, best practices, topics and practical project ideas.
October 30, 2:30 - 3:30

November

Capturing, Recording and Inking Your Desktop

Kelley Zophy: Experience the common uses of Camtasia: recording audio narration for PowerPoint slides; capturing screenshots of software applications and websites; and inking or annotating images displayed on a computer screen.
November 2, 10:00 - 11:00

FERPA

Marilyn Moore: FERPA training is intended to assist you in understanding your responsibilities concerning the treatment of student education records. The emphasis of this session is on those parts of FERPA that most directly affect faculty and staff. We need to be careful when a parent calls and asks for information about a student. If there is no written waiver by the student, disclosure to a parent can be unlawful. In addition, we will demonstrate GUXpress functionality that relates to managing the release of student information.
November 2, 1:30 - 2:30

Creating Rubrics

Janice Whiteman: Gain a basic understanding of how to create a rubric and practice developing a rubric, checking for the quality of that rubric.
November 3, 11:00 - Noon

Creative Utilization of Technology in Academic Advising Webinar

Sponsored by the Advising Center: Find out what's on the horizon in the area of technology that we can harness creatively to assist in engaging our students.
November 4, 10:00 - 11:30

Creating Rubrics

Janice Whiteman: Gain a basic understanding of how to create a rubric and practice developing a rubric, checking for the quality of that rubric.
November 4, 1:00 - 2:00

FERPA

Marilyn Moore: FERPA training is intended to assist you in understanding your responsibilities concerning the treatment of student education records. The emphasis of this session is on those parts of FERPA that most directly affect faculty and staff. We need to be careful when a parent calls and asks for information about a student. If there is no written waiver by the student, disclosure to a parent can be unlawful. In addition, we will demonstrate GUXpress functionality that relates to managing the release of student information.
November 5, 9:30 - 10:30

Partners in Publishing

Deans: Opportunity to partner and collaborate with peers who may be investigating and researching similar topics of interest with the goal of becoming published.
November 6, 1:00 - 3:00

TBA

Basic SMART Board Training

Jill Iannacchione: Learn the basics of working with an interactive whiteboard through hands-on activities.
November 9, 10:00 - 11:00

10 Most Pressing Issues in College Student Mental Health

Explore these 10 pressing issues:

1. The rise in students coming to campus with mental health difficulties.
2. The struggle that higher education is experiencing with the increase in students coming to campus with depression.
3. The increased concern in the assessment and treatment of suicidal students on campus.
4. The increased worry and anxiety demonstrated by college students when coming to college.
5. The increased knowledge needed regarding threat assessment and the growing campus concern following the V-Tech and NIU school shootings.
6. The need to do more with fewer resources in these challenging economic times.
7. The awareness college counselors have regarding the difference between axis I and axis II presentations with their clients.
8. The clash of professional values with counseling and student affairs.
9. The successful process in advocating for budget increases in the college counseling department.
10. The overall stress and burnout all staff are facing.
November 9, 2:00 - 3:30

Embedding Videos into PowerPoint

Tex Brieger: Discover how to embed YouTube videos and other types of streaming video from the internet into a PowerPoint presentation.
November 11, 10:00 - 11:00

Beyond Retention: An Appreciative Approach to Optimizing Student Learning and Engagement Webinar

This webinar will introduce an exciting concept that has been proven to positively impact student retention, GPAs, and satisfaction in and out of the classroom. Based on the organizational development theory of Appreciative Inquiry and the positive psychology literature, Appreciative Advising provides a flexible framework for professionals seeking to optimize student success.
November 12, 1:00 - 3:00
PC 1200

IRB Workshop

Margaret Clark: Examine the role and function of the IRB followed by a question and answer discussion about IRB compliance in specific situations.
November 13, 1:30 - 2:30

Community Shelter Services

Gretchen Fairley: Visit Erie's largest emergency shelter.
November 13, 2:00 - 4:00
Faculty Field Trip Series

Advanced SMART Board Training

Jill Iannacchione: Learn how to create interactive presentations for use with a whiteboard.
November 16, 10:00 - 11:00

Making the Grade: Retention Strategies for First Year College Students Webinar

This webinar will discuss proven strategies utilized in the retention efforts of first year at-risk college students.
November 18, 1:00 - 3:00
PC 1200

Gannon Goes Green Curriculum Auction Party

Gretchen Fairley: Learn about on-campus service-learning and "bid" on real-world environmental projects for your 2010 classes.
November 19, 10:00 - 11:00

Gannon Goes Green Curriculum Auction Party

Gretchen Fairley: Learn about on-campus service-learning and "bid" on real-world environmental projects for your 2010 classes.
November 20, 2:30 - 3:30

December

Understanding Retention and College Student Bodies: Differences Between Drop-Outs, Stop-Outs, and Transfer-Outs Webinar

Join this webinar and learn how to improve your recruitment and retention efforts by creating specific retention strategies that respond to the needs of multiple student bodies.
December 2, 1:00 - 3:00
PC 1200